

WILLIAMS LEGISLATION
EVALUATION OF INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS

Resolution on Sufficiency of Instructional Materials

Whereas, the Governing Board of the Linscott Charter School, in order to comply with the requirements of Education Code 60119, held a public hearing on August 22, 2024, at 5:30pm, which did not take place during or immediately following school hours, and;

Whereas, the information provided at the public hearing detailed the extent to which textbooks and instructional materials were provided to all students, including English learners, in the Linscott Charter School and;

Whereas, the definition of "sufficient textbooks or instructional materials" means that each student, including each English learner, has a standards-aligned textbook and/or instructional materials to use in class and to take home, which may include materials in a digital format but shall not include photocopied sheets from only a portion of a textbook or instructional materials copied to address a shortage, and;

Whereas, the definition of "sufficient textbooks or instructional materials" also means that all students who are enrolled in the same course within the Linscott Charter School, have standards-aligned textbooks or instructional materials from the same adoption cycle, and;

Finding of Sufficient Textbooks or Instructional Materials

Whereas, sufficient textbooks or instructional materials were provided to each student, including each English learner, that are aligned to the academic content standards and consistent with the cycles and content of the curriculum frameworks in the following subjects:

- Mathematics: Kindergarten - Kindergarten-8th Grade Math in Focus
- Science: K-8th Discovery Education
- History-Social Science: 1st-8th grades - TCI - History Alive!
- English/Language Arts, including the English language development component of an adopted program: K-5 Journeys, 6-8 California Collections

Therefore, it is resolved that for the 2024-2025 school year, the Linscott Charter School, has provided each student with sufficient textbooks or instructional materials aligned to the academic content standards and consistent with the cycles and content of the curriculum frameworks.
